Information about Employee's Claim for Compensation for a Work-Related Injury or Occupational Disease (DWC Form-041)

A claim for Workers' Compensation benefits must be filed with the Division of Workers' Compensation (Division) by the injured employee (you), or by a person acting on the injured employee's (your) behalf within one year of the injury or within one year from the date you knew or should have known the injury or disease may be work related; UNLESS good cause exists for the failure to timely file a claim, or the employer or the employer's insurance carrier does not contest the claim.

Upon receipt of your completed DWC Form-041, or other notice of your injury, the Division will create a claim and establish a DWC claim number for you, and the Division will mail information regarding workers' compensation in Texas to you. The Division will also notify your employer and the employer's workers' compensation insurance carrier.
